  - (a) specifies categories of employees in respect of whom only particular provisions of this Agreement apply;
  - (b) provides provisions that apply to specific categories of employees in addition to the rest of the Agreement;
  - (c) modifies certain provisions of this Agreement for the purposes of specific categories of employees.

2. Duration of the agreement

- (1) This Agreement is binding to employers and employees of the industry effective from 1 March 2025 or a date to be determined by the Minister, but not earlier than 1 March 2025, until 28 February 2027.

- (2) This Agreement shall become binding on non-party employers and employees once it is extended by the Minister of Employment and Labour in terms of Section 32 of the Act from a date determined by the Minister, but not earlier than 1 March until 28 February 2027.

1. PART 3: LEAVE

- Clause 22 – Family responsibility leave

Delete clause 22 subclause (3):

“(3) In case of the birth of a child, an employer must grant an employee parental leave as per section 25A of the Basic Conditions of Employment Act.”

Remove the word “birth” from what was previously subclause (4).

“(4) The employee must provide his or her employer with satisfactory proof of each occurrence in the form of a death, medical, or birth certificate, as the case may be.”

- The old subclause (4) is now subclause (3)
- The old subclause (5) is now subclause (4)
- The old subclause (6) is now subclause (5)

- Clause 23 – Maternity leave

- Substitute clause 23 in its entirety as follows:

Clause 23 – Parental Leave

(1) An employee who is a single parent or the only employed party in a parental relationship, such employee shall be entitled to at least four consecutive months parental leave.

- (2) A birth mother who has completed at least 6 months unbroken service with the employer as a class of employee specified in Schedule 5 in respect of whom minimum wages are prescribed is entitled to be paid 33 per cent of her normal basic wage while on maternity leave. This amount must be paid by the employer weekly on the usual pay day.
- (3) In the case of birth, adoption, or commissioning of a child, every employee, regardless of gender or family structure, is entitled to parental leave.
- (4) If both parties to a parental relationship are employed, the parties are entitled in the aggregate to four months and ten days' parental leave.
- (5) A party shall be deemed to be a party to a parental relationship if such a party has assumed parental rights and responsibilities over the child as contemplated in the Children's Act, 2005 (Act No. 38 of 2005).
- (6) A birth mother retains the statutory protection against performing work for four weeks before and six weeks after the birth of the child, unless certified fit to work by a registered medical practitioner or midwife.
- (7) Parental leave may be taken by the parties in such manner as they may agree, including concurrently or consecutively, or partly concurrently and partly consecutively, save that any such parental leave must be taken by the party concerned in a single sequence of consecutive days.
- (8) If the parties cannot agree on the manner in which the parental leave referred to in subsection (6) is to be taken, such parental leave shall be apportioned between the parents in such a way that each parent's total parental leave is as close as possible to half of four months and ten days, provided that such leave is completed within a period of four months from the birth of the child or, where applicable, from the date referred to for adoption or commissioning parent.

- (9) An employee who suffers a miscarriage during the third trimester of pregnancy or bears a stillborn child shall be entitled to six weeks' parental leave immediately following the miscarriage or stillbirth, whether or not the employee had already commenced parental leave at the time.
- (10) All categories of parents – biological, adoptive, or commissioning (surrogacy) – qualify for parental leave, and no distinction shall be made based on parental role, gender, or the age of the child.
- (11) Parental leave shall commence on a date agreed between the employee and employer, which may not be later than the date of birth, adoption, or placement of the child.
- (12) An employee intending to take parental leave must notify the employer in writing, unless the employee is unable to do so, at least one month before the expected date of birth, adoption, or commissioning of a child. The notice must indicate –
  - (a) the anticipated commencement date of the leave; and
  - (b) the portion of leave the employee intends to take and, where applicable, the portion to be taken by the other parent.
  - (c) A date to return to work after the leave.
- (13) If an employee is unable to notify an employer at least one month before the expected date of birth, adoption, or commissioning of a child, he must do so as soon as is reasonably practicable.
- (14) Parental leave may be taken as a continuous period or, by agreement between the employer and employee, in separate periods.

- (15) During parental leave, an employee is entitled to claim benefits from the Unemployment Insurance Fund. The payment of parental benefits will be determined by the Minister, subject to the provisions of the Unemployment Insurance Act, 2001 (Act No. 63 of 2001).
- (16) An employer may not refuse, obstruct, or penalise an employee for taking or sharing parental leave in accordance with this clause 23.
- (17) For the purposes of this clause, the term "parental leave" replaces and consolidates all previous references in this Agreement to maternity, paternity or adoption leave.
- (18) An employer may not require or permit an employee to work during paternity leave.
- (19) An employee who returns to work after a period of parental leave is entitled to resume work in the same capacity and on the same terms and conditions that applied immediately prior to taking such leave if the employee—
- (a) returns to work within six months of the commencement of parental leave; or
  - (b) in the case of a birth mother, furnishes a medical certificate confirming the need for a further period of absence.

2. PART 4 - BENEFIT FUNDS

- Substitute clause 26 subclause (5) as follows:

- (5) The Council must appoint a registered auditor to –
- (a) audit its books and records of accounts and its financial statements; and
  - (b) prepare a statement showing all money received and expenditure incurred under all headings for the financial year to the end of February together with a balance sheet showing its assets and liabilities as at that date.

- Substitute clause 26 subclause (6) as follows:

- (6) The audited statement and balance sheet of the Council, countersigned by the Chairperson of the Council, together with any reports made thereon by the auditor –
- (a) must lie for inspection at the offices of the Council; and
  - (b) a certified copy thereof must be transmitted to the Registrar of Labour Relations within 30 days of receipt.

3. PART 11: ADMINISTRATION OF AGREEMENT

- Delete Clause 70 in its entirety.

4. SCHEDULE 4: WELLNESS FUND

- Substitute Schedule 4 clause (1A) as follows:

- (1) The Wellness Committee will engage the current Service Provider on reviewing the existing benefit structure in an attempt to provide alternative options that will address specific needs of those contributing or to investigate any other alternatives in this regard, within the existing contribution rates.

The Wellness committee will report to EXCO in this regard within 6 months from the Agreement becoming effective in terms of the Council's Constitution, clause 20.

- Delete Schedule 4 clause 4 subclause (4) in its entirety:
- The old Schedule 4 clause 4 subclause (5) is now sub-clause (4)
- The old Schedule 4 clause 4 subclause (6) is now sub-clause (5)
- Substitute Schedule 4 clause 5 subclause (2) as follows:

Withdrawals from the Fund must be by EFT or any other approved payment method and the Executive Committee must designate people as authorised signatories for this purpose.

- Substitute Schedule 4 clause 5 subclause (4) as follows:

The appointed auditor must –

- (a) audit its books and records of accounts and its financial statements as part of the Main Council's consolidated financial statements, as no separate audit opinion is issued for the Wellness Fund; and
- (b) prepare a statement showing all money received and expenditure incurred under all headings during the 12 months ended 28/29 February of the preceding year, together with a balance sheet showing its assets and liabilities as at that date.

- Delete Schedule 4 clause 5 subclause (5) in its entirety:

- Substitute Schedule 4 clause 5 subclause (6)(d) as follows:

Section 53(5) of the Labour Relations Act, 66 of 1995

- The old Schedule 4 clause 5 subclause (6)(d) is now sub-clause (5)(e)

- The old Schedule 4 clause 5 subclause (6) is now sub-clause (5)

- The old Schedule 4 clause 5 subclause (7) is now sub-clause (6)

- Delete Schedule 4 clause 6 in its entirety:

- The old Schedule 4 clause 7 is now clause 6

- The old Schedule 4 clause 8 is now clause 7
